ROUTE 6 SEEING AN INCREASE IN WINERIES

In the last few years, the Route 6 Heritage Corridor is experiencing an explosion of wineries and breweries across the scenic highway. In addition to the award winning wineries along Lake Erie, a new crop of local winemakers are starting to gain recognition and build a following.

A great place to start your exploration of wineries within the PA Route 6 Heritage Corridor is the Lake Erie Wine Country trail, located in the largest grape-growing region east of the Rockies. The trail extends roughly 45 miles from Silver Creek, New York to North East, Pennsylvania (Erie County) and is home to over 23 commercial and estate wineries. For more information on the trail, check out www.lakeeriewinecountry.org

In Crawford County, Conneaut Cellars Winery has been pleasing customers and international judges alike for quite awhile. After studying winemaking in Germany and teaching winemaking in the United States, Dr. Wolf established the Conneaut Cellars Winery in 1982. The winery now features 25 different wines.

In Warren County, the Allegheny Cellars Winery opened in 2007 and features a warm “woody” atmosphere – perfect for a winery in the heart of the Pennsylvania Wilds.

Another perfect setting and atmosphere in the Pennsylvania Wilds is the award winning Flickerwood Winery. Retired from the US Forest Service, winemaker Ron Zampogna feels winemaking is part of his Italian heritage that should be continued and passed along to future Zampogna generations. They have 21 delicious Flickerwood Wine Cellars Wine to offer customers, including sweet, semi-sweet, semi-dry and dry table wines, in reds, whites & blushes.

On the eastern side of Route 6, the Endless Mountains Wine Trail is a great way to sample distinct specialty wines to the traditional varietals. This self-guided trail will take travelers to 10 wineries dotted throughout the Endless Mountains and beyond. Each stop will offer you a different taste, a different story, and a different memory. For a copy of the wine trail brochure, check out www.endlessmountainwinetrail.com

In addition to the scenic view along Route 6 and the amazing artist and studios on the PA Route 6 Artisan Trail, these wineries and wine trails are another great reason to “DO 6”,
