

Scranton, Pennsylvania

From Coal to Cool

Get to the Bottom of History! Through anthracite coal, steel and steam, the efforts of ordinary immigrants provided the fuel that forged a nation. Their legacy lives on in the sights and sounds of Scranton, Lackawanna County, Pennsylvania. At the Lackawanna County Coal Mine Tour, journey 300 feet beneath the earth & experience the conditions of a real coal mine as a retired miner takes you through the winding caverns where ordinary men labored under extraordinary conditions. The Pennsylvania Anthracite Heritage Museum features an extensive collection of relics, artifacts, photographs and exhibits from people that came here to build better lives, but ended up helping to build a better nation. At the Steamtown National Historic Site visitors can tour the only national park service historic site dedicated to the history of steam locomotion. The park includes a visitor's center, working roundhouse and history & technology museums. Ride the yard shuttle or plan to take an excursion. The Electric City Trolley Station & Museum is Scranton's newest historic attraction, featuring antique trolley cars, interactive exhibits, children's gallery, restoration shops and trolley excursions.

That's Entertainment! While you're here, be sure to take The Office Fan Tour which features sites showcased on the NBC TV hit "The Office." For thrills and chills, attend the Houdini Tour & Magic Show or Ghost Tour of Downtown Scranton. Be sure to catch a baseball game at PNC Field, home of the Yankees' Triple-A farm team, the Scranton/Wilkes-Barre Rail Riders. Toyota Pavilion sits high atop Montage Mountain and is a great place to catch a concert under the stars, and the Scranton Cultural Center is the perfect backdrop for a Broadway show in one of our city's most interesting and architecturally significant buildings.
