

PA Route 6
Motorcycle Loops

TAKE THE HIGH ROAD

paroute6.com

PLAN YOUR TRIP

US Route 6 in Pennsylvania was named by National Geographic as "One of America's most scenic drives", chosen by Harley-Davidson as "Pennsylvania's Best Touring Route," and rated in the top 40 of the "Best Routes" in the U.S. by motorcycleroads.com. Enjoy the PA Route 6 Motorcycle Loops as individual 2-3 day trips, or combine multiple loops for a longer adventure.

Get detailed itineraries and downloadable maps at www.paroute6.com/motorcycles, or contact us at 814-435-770 or info@paroute6.com for more information.

Do 6 Mile Markers (MM) posted along the scenic highway guide your travels, allowing you to focus on the thrilling ride and the beauty surrounding you.

Mile Markers run west at the Ohio border (00) to east at the New York border (400) across Route 6 and on Route 6N from Lake Erie (00N) to intersection with Route 6 at Mill Village (27N). Use them to gauge distance between attractions, lodging, dining, shopping and services

Do6 SCENIC VISTAS

- 1. Rimrock Overlook
Get a spectacular view from this favorite spot in the Allegheny National Forest. Just a short hike from the road. (Take Rt. 321N near MM 125)
- 2. Kinzua Bridge State Park
Enjoy the vista from the Kinzua Sky Walk, built on the towers of the Kinzua Bridge, which allows visitors to walk 560 feet into the Kinzua Gorge and look down through a partial glass floor to the valley below. (Near MM 136)
- 3. PA Grand Canyon
Look down on Pine Creek and up at the eagle's nest. Make sure to visit both the Leonard Harrison State Park (near MM 221) and Colton Point State Park (near MM 211) to get two different views of the gorge.
- 4. Troy and Waymart
Marvel at the windmills rising above our mountains in these two towns. Wind energy is just another natural resource being harnessed along the Corridor. (Look for the turbines by MM 239-261 and at MM 348)
- 5. Wyalusing Rocks
Imagine yourself floating down the mighty Susquehanna River or working in the farm fields below as you stand on this overlook. (Near MM 287)
- 6. Tunkhannock Viaduct
Gain a new appreciation for engineering feats as you gaze at the 12 majestic spans of this railroad bridge in the sky. (Near MM 320)

Do 6 HERITAGE SITES

1. US Brig Niagara & Maritime Museum
Our Commonwealth's flagship was captained by Oliver Hazard Perry in the War of 1812. See her when in Port in Erie. (Near MM 1N)

2. Conneaut Lake Park
One of the oldest amusement parks in America. Dare to ride the Blue Streak. (Near MM 13 & 14)

3. Zippo/Case Museum
Enjoy the storied history of Zippo lighters and Case knives, two products still proudly made in Bradford, USA. (North of MM 132 on Rt. 219)

4. PA Lumber Museum
Explore the depletion and restoration of Pennsylvania's forests. Exhibits include a 70-ton Shay locomotive and steam sawmill. Open year-round. (Near MM 187)

5. Steamtown National Historic Site
Showcases the steam era of American Railroad with a working rail yard and roundhouse. (Near MM 332)

6. Grey Towers
Ancestral home of the first chief of the US Forest Service, Gifford Pinchot. Be sure to sit at the water table. (Near MM 394)
