Start your journey in Towanda, make sure to look up—steeples, steeples, everywhere steeples. Stop at Bradford County Tourism Promotion Agency (23) for all of your visitor needs. Take Rt. 220 South through the Susquehanna River Valley towards Dushore. Make a left onto Rt. 487 and follow to Ricketts Glen State Park and its 22 named waterfalls. Turn onto Rt. 118 and follow north through some beautiful scenery. Connect to Rt. 29 and follow into historic Tunkhannock. Main Street Tunkhannock has many dining and shopping places. A side trip Route 6 West just out of Tunkhannock will bring you to the Endless Mountains Visitors Bureau(24)for restaurant and lodging ideas. From Tunkhannock, take the Rt. 6 Bypass to Rt.92/ Rt. 307, continue following Rt. 307 as it splits with Rt. 92 and head towards Lake Winola., once a popular vacation resort with dance pavilion and amusement park. Continue on Rt. 307 into Clark Summit and turn left onto Rt. 6 W & 11 N, otherwise known as the Lackawanna Trail. Clark Summit has many unique and quaint shops. Take Rt. 632 in Dalton, heading towards Carbondale. Turn onto Bus. Rt. 6 East into the Pioneer City, Carbondale, where the Gravity Railroad moved massive amounts of anthracite coal east to Honesdale and on to the Hudson River and New York. Visit the Historical Society on the third floor of City Hall, on the National Register of Historic Places. Follow Bus. Rt. 6 E and take the left onto Rt. 171 towards Forest City. In Forest City, take Rt. 247 to Rt. 106, you will cross under I-81. Make a left onto Rt. 92 and head towards Nicholson. Passing by the Tunkhannock Viaduct, which was built in 1915 and was once the largest concrete bridge in the world. Bare right to get back on Rt. 6 West and return into Tunkhannock for a possible overnight stay. Continue on Rt. 6 West through the rolling hills of the Endless Mountains.

In Wyalusing take a side trip down the picturesque main street and visit the Grovedale Winery and have dinner or a cold beverage at the Wyalusing Hotel(25). Pull off at the two overlook just past Wyalusing for spectacular views. The Marie Antoinette Overlook sits approximately 500 ft above the Susquehanna River. Built in 1930, it overlooks, to the far east, French Azilum, where aristocrats fled persecution during the French Revolution. Return to Towanda to complete your journey and plan your next Route 6 adventure.
