

Take THE High Road - Scenic PA Route 6

Pocono Mountains Loop

Rails, Waterfalls, and Lakes Galore

Start your journey with a view of the wind farm near Waymart. Stop at the Delaware and Hudson Gravity Railroad Museum before departing for Honesdale on Rt. 6E. Stop in Honesdale to experience the history of the Delaware and Hudson with an excursion ride on the Stourbridge Line. Learn more and see a replica of the Stourbridge Lion at the Wayne County Historical Society. Continue on Rt 6E through White Mills, keep an eye out for the Dorflinger-Suydam Wildlife Sanctuary and Glass Museum, a combination of conservation and open spaces with access to over 1,000 pieces of Christian Dorflinger's work at the Dorflinger Glass Museum. Stop in at the Dorflinger Factory Museum to further your appreciation of the glass making heritage. Follow Rt. 6 E into Hawley and check out the progress on the work being done at the D&H Canal Park at Lock 31. Hawley offers many shops, restaurants, and resorts. Stop at the Pocono Mountains Visitors Bureau at Lake Wallenpaupack (26) for recommendations for an overnight, restaurants, shopping and area events. Continue on Rt 6E toward Milford. Make sure to take time to stop at Shohola Falls. Spend the night in Milford. Tour Grey Towers National Historic Site, home of Gifford Pinchot, the first Chief of the United States Forestry Service and avid conservationist. If you are a history buff, you shouldn't miss the "blood relic," the blood-stained flag taken from Ford's Theatre the night President Lincoln was assassinated, on display at The Columns Museum. Milford has a variety of inns and restaurants waiting to serve you. Follow Rt. 6 E to the last town in Pennsylvania at Mile Marker 400, Matamoras. Look for signs to their memorial park. Definitely a site to see, the park honors each conflict and war that the USA has ever participated in. Take the bridge over the Delaware River to enter Port Jervis, NY. From here, ride north on Rt. 97 with its spectacular view of the Pennsylvania landscape from across the river. Make a left on County Highway 168- Minisink Rd and onto Delaware Rd to cross back into Pennsylvania. You have just crossed over the Roebling Aqueduct Suspension Bridge.
